

SEX WORKERS OUTREACH PROJECT (S.W.O.P)

INVITES YOU TO ATTEND A ONE DAY TRAINING ON SEX WORKER RIGHTS, CURRENT ISSUES AND BEST PRACTICES
led by current and former sex worker rights activist artist educators:

Carol Leigh aka Scarlot Harlot
Mariko Passion: Educated Whore & Urban Geisha,
“ Cop to Call Girl” Norma Jean Almodovar

May 25, 2007 12-6pm

UCLA COVELL COMMONS, NORTHRIDGE ROOM

WHORE COLLEGE is a community training program for students and members of various healthcare, social services, social justice activist, research and/or media industries in Los Angeles which will take place for 6 hours on the UCLA campus. “Whore College” is essentially a prostitution sensitivity training introduction which will consist of workshops and interactive lessons covering topics such as debunking myths of prostitutes, the effects of criminalization of prostitution, sex worker healthcare and safety, global prostitution policy, short films by sex workers. Each graduate will be armed with discussion and resource sheets packed with knowledge on how to tailor their services, research or thinking to a paradigm that acknowledges the human, civil and labor rights of workers in the sex industry in the U.S and abroad. PRE-REGISTER BY EMAILING swopla2006@gmail.com your name, organization, occupation or major and topic or area of interest you would like workshops to cover FREE TO UCLA STUDENTS ONLY, community members $25 (sliding scale)

www.myspace.com/swopla
www.whorecollege.org